

JULY 24, 1826.—J. A. STEVENSON

Ten Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the farm of James Monroe, Esq. in Albemarle county, on Monday night last, a negro man named George and his wife Phebe.

GEORGE is about 30 years of age, strait made, six feet high, tolerably dark complexion, had on domestic cotton clothes; but he will no doubt change them.

PHEBE is about 28 years of age, common size, dark complexion, and when she went away was clad in domestic clothes. The above negroes are supposed to be making for the county of Loudon, or probably have obtained free papers, and are endeavoring to get to a free state. If taken in this county I will give a reward of Ten Dollars: or Fifteen Dollars if taken out of the county and secured in any jail so that I get them again.

WM. MOON,

For COL. JAMES MONROE.

July 8, 1826—1f

[Transcription]

Ten Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the farm of James Monroe, Esq. [esquire] in Albemarle county, on Monday night last, a negro man named George and his wife Phebe.

GEORGE is about 30 years of age, strait made, six feet high, tolerably dark complexion, had on domestic cotton clothes; but he will no doubt change them.

PHEBE is about 28 years of age, common size, dark complexion, and when she went away was clad in domestic clothes. The above negroes are supposed to be making for the county of Loudon, or probably have obtained free papers, and are endeavoring to get to a free state. If taken in this county I will give a reward of Ten Dollars: or Fifteen Dollars if taken out of the county and secured in any jail so that I get them again. WM MOON,

For COL [colonel]: James Monroe
July 8, 1826 — tf [till forbid]